

Meet some of our school reading champs. They are going to help spread a love of reading across our school.

Harvey from Year 1 is enjoying 'Little Rabbit Foo Foo' written by Michael Rosen. He said, "This book is so funny, especially the last page."

Ted from Reception really enjoyed 'The Mighty Splash' which is all about a naughty octopus.

Katherine from 5T recommends 'The Lost Words' a beautiful poetry book written by Robert Macfarlane and Jackie Morris.

David from 4B recommends 'War Horse' by Michael Morpurgo. Albert and his horse Joey are inseparable. However, when Joey is sold off to the British cavalry, Albert follows him in the hope of reuniting with his best friend. David really likes this book because it's a story about friendship.

Reading Volunteers

If you have a few hours to spare each week and you would like to listen to children read, please contact Mrs. Tarrington 0151 9225752

Please take a look at our school website under the Reading Section. There you'll find lots of book recommendations and helpful tips for reading with your child. The following websites are brilliant for recommending appropriate books for children of all ages:

www.thereaderteacher.com

We hope you all have a very happy Christmas and have time to take part in the Christmas Reading Challenge.
