Bootle Literacy Festival

As part of Bootle Literacy Festival KS2 were treated to an assembly with the Liverpool poet/ author Levi Tafari. He performed many of his poems and talked to the children about the importance of reading. ST also attended Kingsley and Co Bookshop in Bootle Strand for a reading and writing workshop with the author Vince Cleghorne. There are lots of exciting events happening this Saturday 11th November in Bootle Strand to celebrate the Literary Festival, if you want to go down and join in. and have some fun!

Works on School Site

As you may be aware, work has begun on making improvements to the school site in terms of safer access. The car park is being extended to cope with increased traffic and we are also installing an electric barrier near the front gate. We ask that pedestrians use the small gate that has a path leading directly to the office and ask that parents/carers do not use the school car park either in vehicles or on foot. There may be some disruption whilst the works are carried out, but the changes are designed to improve the safety of all who use the site.

School Photographs

These have now been taken and we ask that you order as soon as possible for quick delivery.

Rock Kidz

Rock Kidz will be coming into school to work with our children tomorrow. We are looking forward to this event which is sure to be lots of fun!

Andrew Grant

A huge thank you to Andrew Grant who came into school to give an inspirational talk to our Y6 pupils. They will use this experience in their English lessons and we look forward to reading the biographies they write.

Pizza Hut Visits for Reception

The rest of the school are completely jealous that Reception are visiting Pizza Hut this week as part of their learning. We hope they have lots of fun and also bring us back some pizza!

Anti-Bullying Week

Next week is National Anti-Bullying Week. To launch this event, we will all be wearing odd socks on Monday 13th November. Thank you.

As ever, if you have any questions, queries or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us.
